General Instructions: Read each question carefully. Answer based on your personal experiences, observations, and understanding.

PART A. UNDERSTANDING PHYSICAL ACTIVITY (10 POINTS)

Answer each question in 2–3 sentences. (5 points each)

1. What does physical activity mean to you? Give two examples of activities that you do in your daily life.

_____

_____

2. Why do you think being physically active is important to college students?

_____

_____

PART B. PERSONAL EXPERIENCE AND OBSERVATION (15 POINTS)

Answer each question briefly. (5 points each)

1. Have you ever participated in a dance, sports activity, or physical performance? Describe your experience.

_____

2. What difficulties might a person experience when learning a new dance or physical activity?

_____

3. How can students encourage their classmates to participate in physical activities?

_____

PART C. APPLYING SAFETY AND RESPONSIBILITY (10 POINTS)

Read each situation and write what you think the person should do.

1. A student immediately starts exercising without preparing their body. What should the student do before continuing?

_____

2. A student feels pain and dizziness while performing a physical activity. What should the student do?

_____

3. A group is practicing a dance routine, but some members are not cooperating. How should the group handle the situation?

_____

PART D. MY PERSONAL PHYSICAL ACTIVITY PLAN (15 POINTS)

Create a simple three-day physical activity plan. You may include walking, jogging, dancing, stretching, cycling, or other activities you are familiar with.

Day	Physical Activity	Duration	Why did you choose this activity?
Day 1
Day 2
Day 3			